Gilbert, AZ –

“This website provides valuable information necessary to forming business partnerships specifically within the lawn and garden industry. Companies looking to buy or sell companies or products will be connected so that all parties can reach their goals and objectives and industry professionals can connect with one another as well,” stated Rick Pontz, President, The Lawn & Garden Performance Group LLC.

The website provides up-to-date listings of companies looking to sell products or their company, companies looking to buy other companies or products. The site also provides a central go-to location where industry professionals can connect. Lawn & garden companies looking to hire industry professionals can post their job listing on the site and industry professionals looking for hire can post their qualifications on the site.

Also available on the website is the ability to subscribe to “Smarty Pontz”, an industry newsletter full of tips and references on how to grow your lawn & garden business. Visit www.lgpg.com.
